

MAGA

Tune: “My Guy” as recorded by Mary Wells; written by Smokey Robinson

Once I was Never Trump, now I’m just a chump for MAGA (MAGA).
Once I was moderate, now I’ve lost my shit to MAGA (MAGA).
Now I’m unequivocally Donald’s guy
And when he says to jump, I say, “How high?”
I’ve joined up in the cult and now I am ultra-MAGA.

Notions that used to make me cringe from MAGA (MAGA),
And crazy ideas from the radical fringe of MAGA (MAGA),
Have moved into the mainstream narrative,
And that is now the world where I live.
I’ve joined up in the cult and now I am ultra-MAGA.

I used to be a voice of the center-right.
Now I’ve had a conversion and I’ve seen the light,
And like Elise Stefanik and J.D. Vance,
Whenever Trump whistles, I get up and dance.

All my rational filters have disappeared with MAGA (MAGA).
I’ve embraced ideas I once dismissed as weird with MAGA (MAGA),
Like conspiracy theories from QAnon,
And any semblance of sanity is gone.
I’ve joined up in the cult and now I am ultra-MAGA.

After January 6, I said “Trump is done” like MAGA (MAGA).
Now I’ve come to see I need to hold my tongue with MAGA (MAGA),
I went down to Mar-A-Lago to kiss his ring.
Now when he calls the tune, I sing.
You know I’ve joined the cult and now I am ultra-MAGA.
You know I’ve joined the cult and now I am ultra-MAGA.
You know I’ve joined the cult and now I am ultra-MAGA.
