

Chop It from the Top

Paul McKenna © 2020

(Tune: "At the Hop" by Danny and the Juniors)

Chop, chop, chop, chop (x4)
From the top!

If you're balancin' the budget, then the place you oughta cut it is the top.
If you're makin' an incision, then the obvious decision is the top.
So take our advice and do all your slicin' at the top.

CHORUS: Chop it from the top (you've got to) (x3)
Chop it from the top.
Come on, chop it from the top.

There's too much administration with excessive compensation at the top
If you're exercising prudence on behalf of all the students, hit the top.
You can find the cash if you do your slashin' at the top.

CHORUS

If you're balancin' the budget, then the place you oughta cut it is the top.
If you're makin' an incision, then the obvious decision is the top.
So take our advice and do all your slicin' at the top.
There's too much administration with excessive compensation at the top.
If you're exercising prudence on behalf of all the students, hit the top.
No ifs, ands, or buts, you gotta make your cuts at the top.

CHORUS

Chop, chop, chop, chop (x4)
From the top!
