

Down with the Company

Paul McKenna © 2081

(Tune: “Vive L’Amour, Vive La Companie”)

Come ev’ry good worker and listen to me. Down with the company!
Join up in our strike if you want to be free. Down with the company!
Please honor our picket line, don’t try to cross. Down with the company!
Sing up with the union and down with the boss. Down with the company!

CHORUS

Oh, down with the, down with the, down with the boss.
Down with the, down with the, down with the boss.
Down with the boss, down with the boss,
Down with the company!

The boss is a liar, a snake, and a crook. Down with the company!
He mistreats the workers and doctors the books. Down with the company!
His head’s made of sand and his heart’s made of stone. Down with the company!
He keeps all the bread and he throws us a bone. Down with the company!

CHORUS

The boss is determined to bust up our strike. Down with the company!
We’re not going back ‘til we get what we like. Down with the company!
Our jobs and our livelihoods we will defend. Down with the company!
The union is going to win in the end. Down with the company!
