

We're Moms for Liberty

Lyrics by Paul McKenna, Sandy Pliskin, Bev Grant, Ted Warmbrand,

and Barbara Dyskant © 2023

Tune: "My Country 'Tis of Thee"

We're Moms for Liberty, we stand for bigotry, for hate and fear.
We're rising to demand that any book be banned,
That tells the truth about our land. Can't allow that here.

We're Moms for Liberty, rewriting history to squelch the truth.
We want to make the rules, raise kids as corporate tools.
Our goal is to control the schools and the minds of youth.

We're Moms for Liberty, but not free inquiry, for curious kids.
We want no history of criminality
Taught to our progeny that must be hid.

We're Moms for Liberty. We know with certainty what kids should learn.
Our sacred mission is to be revisionists,
And our decision is—let the books be burned.

We're Moms for Liberty, we tell you where to pee and how to dress.
No teacher should decide to teach about gay pride.
That's something we prefer to hide. And to suppress.

We're Moms for Liberty, we say what kids can see, what's wrong and right.
So they won't understand it's all one Master Plan
To keep the power in the land straight, male and white.

These Moms for Liberty think they are freeing me as best they can.
I thank them gratefully; my curiosity
Expands enormously toward all they ban.