

STILL AIN'T SATISFIED by Bonnie Lockhart (original and rewrite)

We've made some progress, won some fights, but I Still Ain't Satisfied
Until we all have equal rights, I Still Ain't Satisfied

We're here today, our numbers rising

Let's keep it up; keep organizing!

And I still ain't, woa, they lied (x3) And I Still Ain't Satisfied

Chorus: And I still ain't, woa, they lied (x3)
 And I still ain't satisfied.

They say it's a democracy, but I still ..
'Cause look at our economy, and I still. . .

It's not the par-ty of the hour,

It's the Wall Street gang that's got the power Chorus

We're working hard to fight cutbacks, but I...
Until Wells Fargo pays their tax, and I...

If we raise the tax on the very wealthy

Our safety net would still be healthy Chorus

We've got 3 women on the Court, but I...
'Cause that's about 5 women short, and I...

We've had enough of male malarkey

It's time to smash the patriarchy Chorus

Abortion still is legal here, but I...
'Cause that might not be true next year, but I...

I'm singin' about control of my own womb

And nothing less is gonna change my tune Chorus

They say that drones will save GIs, but I...
While kids in Yemen lose their lives, and I...

We don't want war, we don't need empire

Let's let the dove replace the vampire Chorus
